Bob Johnson Agency Celebrates Eighth Year in Crop Insurance with John Deere

Pocahontas, Iowa – February 8, 2013 – Bob Johnson Agency has been helping farmers manage their risk for the past 30 years and recently celebrated their eighth year selling John Deere crop insurance. Bob and Jeff Johnson operate a full time specialized crop and hail insurance agency which allows them to remain focused on the latest and most critical changes in programs and regulations.

Bob Johnson Agency has been offering John Deere crop insurance since 2005 and achieved designation as a Certified John Deere crop insurance agency in 2009. Joe Young, Vice President, John Deere Insurance Company and Mike Johnson, Division Sales Manager for Western Iowa presented Bob and his staff with a plaque to honor their commitment to John Deere Insurance Company in January. “Bob and his staff have continually delivered exceptional service to their customers over the past eight years and we are proud to have them represent the John Deere brand.” says Mike Johnson.

Bob Johnson is licensed in Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota and South Dakota and co-owns the agency with his son, Jeff Johnson. The agency has grown over the last few years with the assistance of Shirley Bartosh, Senior Compliance Officer while adding Val Bales, Office Manager/Agent and most recently, Travis Vaudt, new agent to the operation.
